PRESIDIUM OF PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY HEARS CITIZENS' COMPLAINTS

Starting with 17 March 1952, Georgi Damyanov, President of the Presidium of the People's Assembly, Mincho Minchev, Secretary of the Presidium, and Tacho Daskalov, who is in charge of hearings, will hear citizens who have complaints or suggestions on Mondays and Fridays at 1000 hours in the People's Assembly Building. Requests for hearings may be made orally or in writing.

On 17 March 1952, Damyanov heard 70 citizens. Some of the citizens received immediate answers, others were told that their requests will be studied and answered subsequently. These hearings demonstrate the care and interest which the government has in the complaints and suggestions made by Bulgarian citizens.
